

Queens Theatre held its 25th Anniversary Gala on Monday, June 2, 2014. This exciting event featured a medley of live performances and honored the outstanding contributions of Euripedes Pelekanos, Founder and CEO of Bareburger.

The importance of our Annual Gala should not be underestimated. In addition to celebrating another year of great performances on our stages, this event provides essential support for Queens Theatre's productions, educational programming, New Play Development and special events.
